“The People Complained” – Numbers 11:1-3

COMPLAINING

- Did the people of Israel rebel against God?
- Did God continue to move His Story forward, despite their disobedience?
- How many spies were sent to survey the land of Canaan?
- How many spies had a good report?
- How many people from those that escaped Egypt were allowed to enter the promise land?
- Why were most not allowed in?
- Was sin a problem for them?

Work through these Q with your parents when you go HOME 😊

- Do you ever complain or disobey?
- What does this tell you about your ability to save yourself?
- Do you need an advocate?
- Who is your advocate?
- Is God still in control of everything that happens in your life?
- Can God’s plan fail?

MEMORY VERSE

• Numbers 11:1

And the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes, and when the LORD heard it, his anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some outlying parts of the camp.

“And the people complained in the hearing of the Lord about their misfortunes, and when the Lord heard it, his anger was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burned among them and consumed some outlying parts of the camp. Then the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the Lord, and the fire died down. So the name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the Lord burned among them.”—Numbers 11:1–3
