“Praise the Lord – Hallelujah!” | An Overview of Psalms

- Are the Psalms a collection of songs the Israelites used in worship?
- In the Psalms, did the authors express their hope in God?
- In the Psalms, did the authors express their hope in the coming Messiah?
- Is that promised Messiah Jesus?
- When reading the Psalms, should we look for Jesus?

Work through these Q with your parents when you go HOME 😊

- How many “books” are there within the Psalms?
- How many Psalms are there?
- What is a lament?
- Is it okay to cry out to God with your concerns?
- Can you trust God in the midst of your concerns?
- Do you “Praise the Lord!” for who He is and what He has done?

MEMORY VERSE

Psalm 150:6

- “Let everything that has breath praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD!”

Talk to your parents or Sunday School Teacher and have them explain what each of the three symbols to the left say and what they mean to you.

“Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law[b] of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.” —Psalm 1:1–4
